AN EXCLUSIVE DESTINATION

VENICE LIDO

The Venice Lido is a 12 km long island; a narrow strip of white sand initially created by the building of two breakwaters. It was first developed as a beach resort in the late 1800's, and quickly built up a reputation as the ultimate destination for the world's elite.

At the start of the 1900's the Nicelli private airport opened and entrepreneur Nicolo Spada's iconic masterpiece, the Hotel Excelsior, quickly followed. It rapidly established a reputation as the ultimate destination for the world's elite.

It was the creation of the Venice Film Festival that really put Venice Lido and the Hotel Excelsior on the map.

The opening night in 1932 on the terrace of Hotel Excelsior was attended by many legendary actors including Greta Garbo, Clark Gable, John Barrymore, Joan Crawford and Boris Karloff.

Venice Lido annually hosts the world-famous Film Festival and continues to attract A-list celebrities to its shores every September.

OUR ROOMS AND SUITES

The distinctive Moorish theme that characterizes the Hotel Excelsior features in all our 196 spacious guestrooms, which include 8 Junior Suites and 15 Suites. Relax in the biggest hotel rooms in Venice, each with large windows providing enticing views of the emerald Adriatic, Venice and the lagoon or our tranquil Moorish courtyard and fountains.

We welcome families to the Hotel Excelsior, and our thoughtful staff will help make your stay relaxing and fun. We have a special Kids' menu and, in summer, a dedicated Kids' Club and baby-sitting service.

For families and groups of friends, we also offer interconnecting rooms, most with sea views. Lido is the only island in Venice accessible by car, and of course there's our exclusive water taxi service.

Every room and suite has a luxury bathroom and includes thoughtful and comforting touches, such as coffee-making facilities, minibar and safe. There is complimentary Wi-Fi throughout the hotel, in our public spaces and on the beach.

MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Whether you're staging a conference, organizing a meeting or arranging a dream wedding, Hotel Excelsior Venice Lido Resort offers a unique and inspiring venue that your guests will admire and enjoy.

Only minutes from the historic heart of Venice, we provide a peaceful, beautiful and adaptable location. As the home of the Venice Film Festival, we are used to hosting major events – comfortably accommodating up to 2,000 people outdoors and 500 indoors.

From business lunches and gala dinners in our impressive banqueting rooms to romantic wedding celebrations on the beach, our experienced team will help you choose the ideal setting, help plan your event and make sure it goes smoothly.

Hotel Excelsior is an unforgettable setting for your meeting, with the flexibility to accommodate events of almost any scale.

Our impressive Red Carpet Room is a purpose-built theatre style auditorium with excellent acoustics and the capacity to cater for up to 500 guests.

Our spectacular banqueting rooms are ideal for pre- or post-meeting business lunches and gala dinners. For the grandest occasion, choose the iconic Stucchi Room, a celebrated location for the Oscar-winning movie Once Upon A Time In America.

There's also the possibility to buy-out specific areas or have exclusive use of the hotel. Whilst for more intimate meetings, we offer several smaller rooms that can be hired separately or together. Most of our meeting rooms have natural daylight.
