

HISTORY

Hotel Excelsior is an extraordinary oasis of calm and comfort, offering the brilliant best of both worlds. Just a brief boat ride from the pulsating heart of Venice, Hotel Excelsior is a tranquil hideaway for distinguished international travelers, movie stars and discerning guests. This is where couples, families and visitors of all ages find surprising delights and quiet relaxation to suit their mood. Hotel Excelsior is a destination in its own right: a historically significant Venetian palazzo, enriched by exotic Moorish architecture. Here, contemporary luxuries sit harmoniously alongside lovingly preserved splendor, including the spectacular Stucchi Room (featured in Once Upon A Time In America starring Robert De Niro). With our ideal location and magnificent rooms, we offer a dream setting for unforgettable weddings and celebrations, and an impressive, very adaptable venue for conferences and business events. Our iconic hotel is also home to the world-renowned Venice Film Festival and Biennale Art and Architecture exhibitions. At Hotel Excelsior, every experience is superlative, from unforgettable meals created by our Chefs, to the iconic Cabanas arrayed on our private beach. Explore Venice, then immerse yourself in our uniquely soothing atmosphere.

ROOMS & SUITES

The distinctive Moorish theme that characterizes the Hotel Excelsior features in all our 196 spacious guestrooms, which include Junior Suites and Suites. Relax in the biggest hotel rooms in Venice, each with large windows providing enticing views of the emerald Adriatic, Venice and the Lagoon or our tranquil Moorish courtyard and fountains. Each room is equipped with a Smart TV, and complimentary Wi-Fi is available throughout the hotel, in our public spaces and on the beach.

Hotel Excelsior is an unforgettable setting for your meeting, with the flexibility to accommodate events of almost any scale.
